$10,000 REWARD FOR SLAYER

Expect Arrest Soon in First Interview by Mrs. Edmands

The Boston AMERICAN will pay $1,000 to the person who furnishes to this newspaper exclusively evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Miss Avis Linnell, who was poisoned with potassium cyanide at the home of the Young Women's Christian Association on Warren street last Saturday evening. Facts bearing on this atrocious crime may be given to the City Editor of the AMERICAN at Nos. 80-82 Summer street, Boston.

The judgment of this newspaper as to who is entitled to the $1,000 reward shall be final and conclusive.

The police have under espionage a suspect in the murder of Miss Avis Linnell, the pretty child singer who was poisoned last Saturday in the Young Women's Christian Association home in Boston. It became known today.

"Thus far," said Chief Dugan of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, this afternoon, "only one man has been brought into this case in connection with the death of the Linnell girl. We learned that Miss Linnell was visited at Hyannis by a man who came on a bicycle. The bicycle is still there."

Chief Dugan would not disclose the name of the man. A big force of detectives is working on the mystery. It is expected that there will be an arrest soon.

WAS TO BE MARRIED TUESDAY

Clergymen friends of the Rev. Clarence C. V. Richardson told today to induce him to make a statement of the tragedy. If anything, the preacher was engaged to be married to Miss Edmonds, who died in 1908, leaving no children. The engagement continued up to the time of the girl's death. Later they learned that he was engaged to Miss Violet Edmonds of Providence.

The wedding of the clergyman and Miss Edmonds was set for next Tuesday week in the Baptist Church of the City Centre. The officiating clergyman was to be the Rev. Dr. George Edwin Herr, president of the Newton Theological Seminary, and the Rev. Dr. Maurice Levy, pastor of the Newton Centre Church.

GIRL WILL INHERIT FORTUNE

It became known today that Miss Edmonds left her fortune to her daughter, who died in 1908, leaving no children. The fortune was valued at $100,000. With the exception of about $10,000 the estate is composed of money stocks and bonds.

Under the will $10,000 was left to her mother and charitable institutions. The residue of the property was left to her son, Mr. Stuart Edmonds and Herbert H. Valentine of Somerset.

After the death of Mr. Stuart Edmonds, the fortune of the estate is to be divided between his two daughters, Violet and Rose Edmonds, the latter having died in 1908. In the event of her death or of her mother dying, the estate shall be divided between the two daughters.

It was reported this afternoon that the Rev. Dr. Herr of the Newton Theological Seminary had called upon the Rev. Mr. Richardson today and had discussed the case with him. He made a statement. The report was a matter of fact. The report was a matter of fact. The report was a matter of fact.

There was much excitement at the Edmonds home this afternoon. Dr. Herr's arrival was announced suddenly and in a short time he was followed by Dr. Herr. Dr. Herr of Middlebury, New York, it would seem, had been called upon by the police to examine the body of the girl.

Tells of Miss Linnell's work. Ralph L. Flinders, manager of the Newton Theological Seminary, told the AMERICAN that Miss Linnell was a pupil, but not a boarder, at the seminary. She was a very bright girl and gave Miss Linnell much of her time.

Mrs. Moore, Grant Edmonds, the mother of Miss Violet Edmonds, to whom the Rev. Clarence V. Thompson Richardson, it has been announced, will be married on October 31, today made the first statement in connection with the murder of Miss Avis Linnell, to whom the clergyman was formerly engaged, that has come from the Edmonds family since the tragedy took place.

The clergyman has been sequestered at the Edmonds home since last Sunday. He declines to see anyone or make a statement about the mysterious case. Mrs. Edmonds received a reporter in her home today.

"I want to see the Rev. Mr. Richardson," said the reporter. "Nobody can see him," replied the woman firmly. "Why not?"

"Because my husband has retained an attorney for him and the lawyer has instructed him not to say anything."

AT EDMANDS HOUSE SATURDAY AFTERNOON. "Who is the lawyer?"

"I am not at liberty to tell you."

"The newspapers say today that Mr. Richardson took luncheon with Miss Linnell last Saturday. Is that true?" Mrs. Edmonds was asked.

"Why, that is foolish, because he was here in this house from noon until early in the evening last Saturday."

"Have you read the papers to-day about the case?"

"No, none of us have read a word about this case since it started, because Mr. Edmonds keeps all the papers away from us."

Efforts to get in direct communication with Mr. Richardson failed. He is in a room on the second floor of the Edmonds residence. Once or twice he has been noticed looking out of a window, but so far as is known he has not left the house since last Sunday.

MR. EDMANDS NOT AT HIS OFFICE. Mr. Edmonds is a trustee of estates with an office on Milk street. He has been at his office but once this week. He and Mrs. Edmonds and their two daughters, the eldest of whom is the affianced bride of the Rev. Mr. Richardson, have kept closely to their home all week.

So far as is known no change has been made in the plan for the wedding, a week from next Tuesday.

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"What I thank Mass. 'I cannot express my feelings through the change of my life after I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition, I could not keep still. I felt as if I were going to be sick. I was so weak, I could not walk. I had no energy, I was nervous, and I could not sleep at night. I was made bold by two physicians that I should take a tonic. I took one day of the wonderful cure made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I found it had made me a well woman. I was cured of my nervousness. I had worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine I have used during this period of life. If it were not for this medicine, I should not be here today." Mrs. N. A. HAN, 116 GUYARD ST., N. MAIN STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

"I am a married woman, in the best period of a woman's life. I feel like a young girl. Women everywhere should remember Lydia E.
